Category:English grammar booksJust a reminder to you all, that I will be out of the office next week on vacation, and will therefore not be able to attend to any voicemail. However I will attend to any faxes for the Houston and London offices. If you need to reach me, you can always email my profile on my C.V. to the Manager at Enron, and he will find me. Alternatively there is a message waiting for me to call when I return, if you would like to call around that time. My contact details are in my C.V. Many thanks and regards, Kirstee Kirstee Harris 02/11/2000 12:27 AM To: Lynda Clemmons/HOU/ECT@ECT, Corinne A Samou/LON/ECT@ECT, George McClellan/HOU/ECT@ECT, Mark Taylor/HOU/ECT@ECT, Edmund Cooper/LON/ECT@ECT, Simon Berthou/LON/ECT@ECT cc: Francis M Down/HOU/ECT@ECT, Sally Beck/HOU/ECT@ECT Subject: Vacation I am taking the week beginning 21st Nov. off. I will be back in the office on Monday 27th Nov, and will be available to handle all your phone calls and faxes, however I may not be able to attend to email messages. If anyone else needs some vacation time, you need to make your requests before the end of this week. Thanks.Q: Capture session id using the Sandbox Broker The Sandbox broker has the SessionId property which is a string that I can use to identify connections that have been established with this broker. This is helpful for session management, but I cannot find a way to capture the SessionId for that connection, i.e. if I have a program that connects to the broker from several threads and I want to know the SessionId of the connection on which a message was received I cannot find a way to do this. Is there any way of capturing the session id in code? A: There is no possibility to get the session ID in code; It's only available in the Sandbox broker, through the SessionId property that you
